ABOUT SUGAR MOUSE

Welcome to Sugar Mouse, NYC's go-to destination for unforgettable kids' birthday parties—where fun, flavor, and festive energy come to life!

Located at 47 3rd Avenue in the heart of the city, Sugar Mouse is more than just a game hall—it's a vibrant, family-friendly space designed to spark joy, imagination, and endless play. Whether your child dreams of a high-energy ping pong tournament, a chill hangout with games and friends, or a colorful celebration filled with laughter and treats, Sugar Mouse delivers it all.

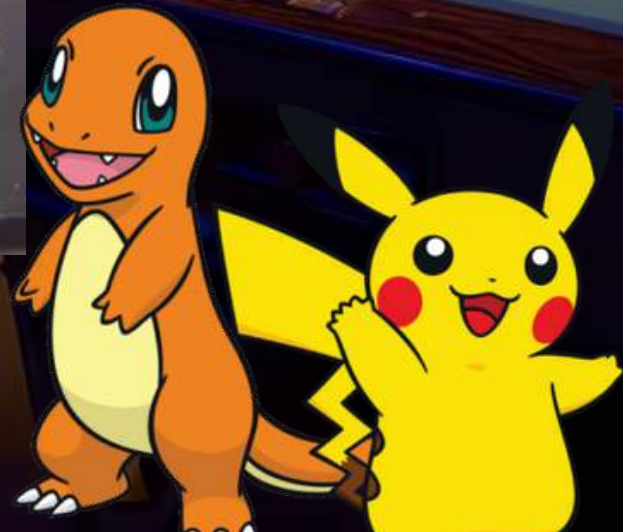

We specialize in creating stress-free, joy-filled celebrations that parents love and kids will never forget. With a team dedicated to making every event smooth and exciting, we handle the details so you can focus on the smiles. From themed decor and playful entertainment to delicious kid-approved menus, we make birthday magic happen.

The background of the entire image is a vibrant, stylized game hall. It features several pool tables with blue felt and wooden frames. The walls are covered in large-scale projections of a city skyline at night, with buildings in shades of purple, blue, and pink. A sign on the wall reads "SUGAR MOUSE". The ceiling is decorated with colorful bunting flags in purple, pink, and blue. In the top left corner, there are colorful streamers and a blue party hat.

At Sugar Mouse, our vision is to be New York City's favorite spot for kids' celebrations and family fun. We're reimagining the game hall experience by creating a bright, welcoming, and exciting space where children can play freely, laugh loudly, and make unforgettable memories.

Whether it's a birthday party, a weekend outing, or a special treat, Sugar Mouse is a place where imagination comes to life and every kid feels like the star of the show.
